Classes will be visiting the books to create a "Wishlist" to bring home. Feel free to take your children out of class to visit the Fair to make your selections.

The school will receive a generous percentage of the value of sales to go towards our Library collection. Any generous donations of books to the Library would be very gratefully received!

Don't forget Book Character Dress Up day on Tuesday 21st May.

- ♦ NYLD - National Young Leaders Day... Our five school leaders will be travelling to Claudelands in Hamilton with Miss O'Connor tomorrow to be part of a very inspirational presentation that will hopefully see them inspired to develop their leadership within the school. We look forward to hearing all about it and what their goals are for the remainder of 2019.
- ♦ Tainui Waka Learning Day... Miss O'Connor, Whaea Marie, Miss Johnston and I attended a very informative learning session from Friday evening at Te Kuiti Pa through until Saturday evening, which involved us travelling to Kawhia and down the coast to Mokau learning more about the history of our local area and in particular the Tainui Waka and its descendants. Our learning will now be part of our teaching programmes and will include the use of some amazing children's books to be launched nearer to the Whikoi me Te Reo in June. More about this initiative later.
- ♦ Rangitoto Cross Country... Wednesday 22nd May. Mrs Pease has sent home permission forms for those who are attending. These forms need to be returned by Wednesday this week.

MANIAPOTO JUNIOR NETBALL

We had our first Junior Netball session at Trustpower Maniapoto Netball Centre on Friday and what a fantastic turn out. With keen new netballers from years 1, 2, 3 & 4 looking awesome in their uniforms and every single player participating wonderfully.

A huge thank you to all coaches, parents/guardians and other friends and family who came to watch their young ones. With your continued support and help these new players will improve greatly over the 10 week programme. See you all this Friday - rain or shine.

Kind Regards, Carolyn Webster, Trustpower Maniapoto Junior Netball Coordinator.
