Principal's News...

WELCOME TO WEEK 3, TERM 4

I hope you all managed to enjoy the beautiful weather over Labour weekend.

Unfortunately Miss Johnston didn't!

Shahnee was admitted to hospital last Wednesday with severe abdominal pain. She remains undiagnosed in Waikato Hospital awaiting a CT scan which will hopefully happen today. A word of advice to you all. Never get sick over a holiday weekend when hospitals are short staffed and there are masses of trauma patients admitted due to road accidents etc.

Miss J we all wish you a very speedy recovery from whatever it is that ails you and next time you need a holiday, choose a better destination!

Mrs Palmer and Miss Hurley will staff Room 3 for the remainder of this week .

- ♦ First Aid Course... A well attended first aid course took place in the library last Thursday. 18 attendees qualified or renewed their first aid qualification for a further two years. Thank-you Mrs Alcock for organising this. It's great to know that our district is in such safe hands.
- ♦ Board Meeting - next Monday at 7.00pm - All welcome!
- ♦ Rangitoto Cross Country - this Friday... Students travelling to Rangitoto Cross Country will receive transport information today . Mrs Pease will be travelling with the team. Good luck everyone.
- ♦ Country School Athletics... Ohura Valley School athletic sports next Friday 6th November, this is a whole school event. There is no postponement date. Please complete the attached permission/transport form attached and return by this Thursday so that Nicola can organise the transport list.

Have a great week,
Pam Voyce.
