Principal's News...

WELCOME TO WEEK 6 OF TERM 4, 2020

- ◆ Inter-School Athletics - this Friday 20th... Our team will be travelling to Te Kuiti High School on Friday to compete in this event.

All of those involved have been contacted by Mrs Pease who will be traveling with the team. All queries to Heather please.

- ◆ Swimming... The pool will be opened at the end of this week. If the weather is favourable we will start class swimming next Monday 23rd, so please make sure your children have their togs and towels with them each day from then on.

Decisions will be made by class teachers each day, depending on the weather and how many students have brought their togs.

- ◆ Book Fair Week begins Monday 23rd November... Our annual selection of Scholastic books will be on display in the Technology Room and available for purchase from next Monday.

Classes will be visiting the books to create a "Wishlist" to bring home. Feel free to take your children out of class to visit the Fair to make your selections.

The school will receive a generous percentage of the value of sales to go towards our Library collection. Any generous donations of books to the Library would be very gratefully received!

Don't forget Book Character Dress Up day on Tuesday 24th November.

- ◆ Miss Johnston is still on sick leave... Miss Johnston is back in Waikato Hospital and her return to school will not be in the near future. We are all sending Shahnee our best wishes for a rather more speedy recovery than she has experienced so far. We can't wait for her return to school.

Have a great week,
Pam Voyce.
